

Rev Dr Gerald Bray

A retreat open to both clergy and lay.
A time to reflect and fellowship with one another.

Rev Dr Gerald Bray
will be our retreat leader:

Gerald, ordained in 1979,
was formerly a lecturer at Oak Hill College in London and is now Research Professor of Divinity at Beeson Divinity School, Samford University, Alabama, based in the UK.

He is editor of the Church Society's journal, Churchman, and Director of Research for the LatimerTrust (UK).

Gerald is responsible for "mentoring theologians, writing, and taking on speaking engagements to encourage Christians to stand up for Biblical truth in church, work and theology".

To be held at the Living Springs Conference Centre, Christchurch, from 10 am on Mon, 23 August till 2 pm on Wed, 25 August 2010

Latimer Fellowship
Retreat 2010

The Latimer Fellowship began in 1946 as the Evangelical Churchmen's Fellowship before adopting the name of the renowned preaching bishop and martyr of the English reformation, Hugh Latimer (1485-1555).

Latimer has the aim of encouraging evangelical thought amongst Anglicans throughout New Zealand by providing fellowship, resources and training opportunities. Latimer also seeks to articulate the evangelical heritage of New Zealand along with the bicultural gospel vision of the early missionaries to our land.

Become a Full Member of the Fellowship: Tap into friendship and support from our network of evangelical Anglican thinkers. Cost: $35 pa (or subscribe to Latimer Focus magazine only for $20 pa). Contact the Latimer Office.

*An Anglican Society in New Zealand affiliated with EFAC (the Evangelical Fellowship of the Anglican Communion)
and a partner in AFFIRM: Anglicans For Faith Intercession Renewal and Mission.*

Latimer Retreat 2009

Rev Dr
Gerald Bray

The Christian Life

What does it mean to live as a Christian? How do we work out our salvation, as the Apostle Paul told us to do, 'in fear and trembling' (Phil. 2:12)?

In this series of talks, we are going to look at the different steps that we follow as we draw nearer to God and learn more about his will for our lives.

As we take each step together, we shall pause to reflect on how it affects us and how we can share its significance with God's people.
